American Headache Society®
November 16 - 19, 2017
JW Marriott Desert Ridge Resort & Spa
Phoenix, Arizona

REGISTRATION BROCHURE
Continuing Medical Education
The American Headache Society® is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians. AHS takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

The American Headache Society® designates this live educational activity for a maximum of 26.5 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

AAFP
Application for CME credit has been filed with the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP). Determination of credit is pending.

Disclosure Statement
All contributors who can affect American Headache Society CME content (including Leadership, Program Chairs, Moderators, Faculty Members, Medical Writers and Staff), in their respective roles, are required to disclose all relevant financial relationships with any commercial interest that could be viewed as a real or perceived conflict of interest. Contributors will also identify relevant financial relationships of their spouse. This policy is in effect to maintain adherence with the conflict of interest guidelines set by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) and the American Headache Society Ethics Committee.

Attendees will be made aware of any affiliation or relevant financial interest that may affect the development, management, presentation or evaluation of the CME activity and will be printed in the final program and projected in slide format before each presentation. Individuals who refuse to disclose relevant financial relationships will be disqualified from being a contributor, and cannot have control of, or responsibility for, the development, management, presentation or evaluation of the CME activity.

Special Note For The Physically Challenged
The American Headache Society® wishes to take steps to ensure that no individual with disability is excluded, denied services, segregated, or otherwise treated differently than other individuals because of the absence of auxiliary aids and services. If you need any auxiliary aids or services identified in the Americans with Disabilities Act, or any assistance in registering for this symposium, please contact AHS Senior Meeting Manager, Cheryl Gallagher at 856-423-0043, write to her at AHS, 19 Mantua Road, Mt. Royal, NJ, 08061, or email AHSHQ@talley.com.

The above rates do not include applicable state and local taxes, currently 12.57%.

Room reservations will be confirmed on a first come, first served basis until Monday, October 16, 2017 or until the block is sold out, whichever comes first. Reservation requests received after the cut-off date noted above will be based on availability at the hotel’s prevailing rate. All reservations must be accompanied by a first night room deposit or guaranteed with a major credit card. Hotel will not hold any reservation unless secured by one of the above methods.

Online reservations can be secured by visiting the AHS website and clicking on the housing link on the conference page.

Please note reservations within the AHS block of rooms are for registered attendees ONLY. Reservations made by non-registrants will not receive the discounted rate.
2017 Educational Objectives
At the conclusion of this meeting, attendees should be better able to:

- Describe and make use of the basics in diagnosis, epidemiology, and treatment of migraine, trigeminal autonomic cephalalgias, and other primary headaches.
- Contrast and compare differences in secondary versus primary headaches in order to optimize clinical outcomes.
- Identify major new cutting edge therapies in Headache Medicine.
- Categorize and carry out options for prevention or treatment of refractory headache disorders.

Education Mission Statement
The provision of quality CME is a primary mission of the American Headache Society®. The Society’s educational objectives are to continue to improve the knowledge, skills, and professional performance of physicians, psychologists, and other health professionals in the care of patients with head, neck, and orofacial pain by:

- Providing a forum for presentation of free scientific communication on research and clinical practice
- Providing educational symposia
- Improving education in medical schools and residency programs
- Identifying and developing new educational initiatives
- Supporting educational programs directed to people with head, neck, and orofacial pain
- Maintaining strict adherence to ACCME guidelines
- Developing education activities and tools that are designed and then evaluated for their role in improving the learners’ competence, performance, and the overall quality and safety of the care they give to individuals suffering from head, neck, and orofacial pain

About The American Headache Society®
The American Headache Society® (AHS) is a professional society of healthcare providers dedicated to the study and treatment of headache and face pain. The Society’s objectives are to promote the exchange of information and ideas concerning the causes and treatments of headache and related painful disorders. Educating physicians, health professionals and the public, and encouraging scientific research are the primary functions of this organization. AHS activities include an annual scientific meeting, a comprehensive headache symposium, regional symposia for neurologists and family practice physicians, publication of the journal Headache.

Who Should Attend?
This symposium is designed for general practitioners, internists, pediatricians, neurologists, anesthesiologists, dentists, physical therapists, psychologists, psychiatrists, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, nurses, and other health professionals who treat headache.

The Scottsdale Headache Symposium® continues to be a successful venue for providing practical, clinical, evidence-based information on the diagnosis, management, and treatment of headache patients. Education is presented in didactic, case-based, evidence-based, panel, and demonstrative formats.
