AHS activities include an annual scientific meeting, a fall headache symposium, and publication of the journal Headache®.

The American Headache Society's® Annual Scientific Meeting continues to be the premiere venue for the dissemination of the latest and most up-to-date research and scientific advances underlying the practice of Headache Medicine.

Education Mission Statement

The provision of quality CME is a primary mission of the American Headache Society®. The Society's educational objectives are to continue to improve the knowledge, skills, and professional performance of physicians, psychologists, and other health professionals in the care of patients with head, neck, and orofacial pain by:

- Providing a forum for presentation of free scientific communication on research and clinical practice.
- Providing educational symposia.
- Improving education in medical schools and residency programs.
- Identifying and developing new educational initiatives.
- Supporting educational programs directed to people with head, neck, and orofacial pain.
- Maintaining strict adherence to ACCME guidelines.
- Developing education activities and tools that are designed and then evaluated for their role in improving the learners' competence, performance, and the overall quality and safety of the care they give to individuals suffering from head, neck, and orofacial pain.
