

Kathleen Digre, MD, FAHS

Kathleen Digre is the Distinguished Professor of Neurology and Professor of Ophthalmology at the University of Utah. She is the current President of the American Headache Society and past-president of the North American Neuro-ophthalmology Society. Her research focuses on clinical disorders of the eye and migraine and also optic disc, increased intracranial pressure. She authored over two hundred peer-reviewed articles, reviews. Awards include: Rosenblatt Award from the University of Utah, an honorary doctorate from the University of Zurich. Dr. Digre is married with two adult daughters. Her hobbies include discussing books, cross country skiing, fishing, opera, hiking, and traveling.