

Research Career Development Program

June 15-17, 2023

Seeking new and early career investigators to conduct the next generation of impactful headache research!

The AHS Research Career Development Program is designed to demystify grant funding for headache research, give you a framework for getting started with your research, and obtain mentorship from established headache researchers.

Chair: Elizabeth Seng, PhD, FAHS

THURSDAY

- Welcome and Orientation
Scott W. Powers, PhD, FAHS
- Building an Early Research Career through NIH Mechanisms
Michael Oshinsky, PhD
- Panel Discussion
Rebecca E. Wells, MD, MPH, FAHS [Clinical Trials/NIH]
Andrew F. Russo, PhD [Basic Science/NIH]
Richard B. Lipton, MD, FAHS [Industry]
Michael Oshinsky, PhD [NIH/Government]

FRIDAY

- Identifying a Research Question and Appropriate Design
Elizabeth Seng, PhD, FAHS
 - How to Write a Specific Aims Page
Michael Oshinsky, PhD
 - People Problems: How to Find Mentors and Helpers
Andrea Harriott, MD, PhD
- Plus, Dr. Oshinsky holds open office hours for 1-on-1 reviews of participants' Aims Pages*

SATURDAY

- Jumpstarting Your Research Career (small roundtable discussions)
Catherine D. Chong, PhD
Mia Minen, MD, MPH, FAHS
Christina L. Szperka, MD, MS, FAHS
Richard B. Lipton, MD, FAHS and/or Peter J. Goadsby, MD, PhD, FAHS
Greg Dussor, PhD
Rebecca E. Wells, MD, MPH, FAHS and/or Scott W. Powers, PhD, FAHS