

First Contact – Headache in Primary Care

*Continuing Medical Education Credits for Grand Rounds Presentation
Tennessee Valley Healthcare System, October 25, 2023*

Purpose/ Objective

Learners will report their intention to change their practice as it pertains to the diagnosis and management of migraine throughout a woman’s life, leading to clinical practice changes as described in the session evaluation.

Accreditation Statement

The American Headache Society is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation Statement

The American Headache Society designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit (s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Instructions for Claiming CME

- ❖ Attend the sessions in full for which credit is sought
- ❖ Complete the post-activity evaluation
- ❖ A certificate of completion will be available once the evaluation is submitted

Financial Disclosures

The planners and faculty for this activity did not have any relationships to disclose unless listed below. All relevant relationships were mitigated prior to the start of the activity according to ACCME Standards.

Speaker Name	Company Name	Relationship
Click here for disclosures

Disclosure of Commercial Support

The American Headache Society received funding to support this activity from the following organizations:

N/A